Household hazardous waste collection day is April 24

Put on your work gloves and push up your sleeves – spring cleaning goes into overdrive in Kingman County the week of April 23.

Household hazardous waste collection April 24

Kingman County will join with the Kingman County Conservation District and the City of Kingman to hold a Household Hazardous Waste Collection Day on Monday, April 24. Residents are encouraged to bring waste items “too toxic to trash” to the Kingman Expo Center, 121 S. Main in Kingman, from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Items accepted: adhesives, glues & epoxy; aerosols; arts & craft chemicals; automotive products; fluorescent lights; household cleaners; lawn & garden chemicals; mercury thermometers; oil based paints (no latex); paint chemicals; pesticides & herbicides; photo chemicals, pool chemicals.

Everything must be in marked containers. No unmarked containers will be accepted. This event is not for commercial or business disposal – it is for residential disposal only.

John Wimer, County Noxious Weed Director, reminds residents that household hazardous waste items also may be taken on weekdays to the Noxious Weed office at 900 E. A Ave. Please call 620-532-5187 for hours. Do not leave items when the office is closed.

Don't forget to recycle

The Kingman County Recycle Center will be open during the week as follows:

- 7:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. Tuesday, April 25, and
- 9 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. Thursday, April 27.

The recycle center has discontinued its monthly Saturday hours. The center is located at 337 N. Marquette St. To use the drive-thru, enter from Marquette Street and exit onto East C Avenue. For a complete list of recyclable items, visit the county's website at kingmancoks.org (select “Government,” then “Recycle Center”). For recycling questions, please call 620-491-2380 or 620-532-5731.
